This was the Roxburghe copy.

This little volume is to be kept so long as I live as a memorial of my dear old friend T. J. Pettigrew who gave me a MS. which after reading I did not care to keep, & bought this for the same money of course looking upon it as his present.

This ed. is very much rarer than the previous one of 1619. For ten copies of ed. 1619 not more than one of ed. 1630 can be found.
